

A Woman of Grace

It is said that "grace" is God's unmerited favor. A "Woman of Grace" knows the priceless value of God's grace in her life. She does not take it for granted; she knows it is too precious to squander.

A "Woman of Grace" is keenly aware that she has been uniquely created by God to fully live her life in such a way as to edify and bring honor to her Lord and Savior.

A "Woman of Grace" counts it all joy when she encounters trials and temptations because she knows who she is and to whom she belongs. She understands that the trying of her faith works patience and she will be made perfect and entire wanting nothing.

A "Woman of Grace" intentionally seeks the wisdom of God whereby she can exercise good judgment and make sound decisions in her life, thus glorifying God in her demeanor and character.

A "Woman of Grace" takes the time to pour her very best into her family to ensure they are well provided for. She nurtures her family and ensures her home is one where Christian love abounds and the Lord is exalted.

A "Woman of Grace" serves her community and church cheerfully and commits to private and corporate devotion and worship knowing that in order to effectively lead, she must first be taught, understand the significance of being yielded and embrace the blessings of being a follower.

A "Woman of Grace" is a gift to God. She loves her Lord with her whole heart and her deepest desire is to serve Him in such a way that others may thirst to know Him and receive His unmerited favor, "that grace that only He can give."
